Keynote Speakers:

Christiana Bratiotis, PhD, MSW

Dr. Christiana Bratiotis is an Associate Professor in the School of Social Work at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver. She pioneered work in the formation and operation of multi-disciplinary community hoarding task forces. Her current research centers on hoarding treatment and intervention efforts in affordable housing and community-based organizations.

Mary Coalson, LPC

Mary Coalson is an ElderVention® therapist with the Arizona Area Agency on Aging, Region One. She will address hoarding disorder in older adults. Coalson manages a hoarding disorder therapy group for older adults in addition to providing individual therapy.

12 Breakout Sessions:

Topics will include trauma's role in hoarding disorder, a multidisciplinary team approach to hoarding disorder, a personal journey managing hoarding disorder, mental health treatment for hoarding disorder, support groups, animal hoarding and more.

Target Audience:

- Mental Health Professionals
- Older Adult Service Providers
- Family Members
- Home Health Service Providers
- Housing Managers
- Emergency Responders
- City and County Employees in Inspections, Public Health and Public Safety

Cost
